

London Sept 19, 1866
My dear Sir:

64
I thank you for the autograph, and the information you give me about yourself, although I wish the latter were more gratifying.

Mr Conway has desired me to attend to a matter which he had supposed was settled some years ago, but now seems was not. He says that on leaving America in 1863 he borrowed of you some volumes of the Rebellion Record, and gave directions to have them replaced by the purchase of others in course of that year. But he has never received a bill of the purchase, and fears that you have never had the books. If that is the case he desires me to replace the volumes, which I will do at once, if you will notify me which they are.

Mr Conway is mortified that this should have been neglected by the person to whom he wrote, and will be very glad to hear that you have received the volumes.

Very truly yours

J. B. Leubens

Wm Lloyd Garrison Esq Roxbury -

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, appearing as bleed-through. The word "Kecris" is partially legible.

Handwritten text, possibly a date or number, appearing as bleed-through. The characters "18" and "10" are visible.

Handwritten text, possibly a name or address, appearing as bleed-through. The word "Harrison" is partially legible.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, appearing as bleed-through. The word "Harrison" is partially legible.